

14 *organisations
participated on the ACG LDAG.

Diverse sector involvement:
education, health, law enforcement, community and welfare and alcohol and other drugs* See organisations below.

4 meetings held.

Priority Area 1: Underage Drinking

Schools Working Party

Schools Working Group established (Lead agency: Department of Education)

10 member organisations participated

6 meetings held

Audit tool developed to gather data on alcohol and mental health programs in schools

2 schools recruited to pilot an alcohol-related parent engagement strategy.

*ACG LDAG organisations: Alcohol and Drug Foundation, Cannington Armadale Family Support Network, City of Armadale, City of Gosnells, Department of Education, East Metropolitan Health Service, headspace, Hope Community Services WA, Mental Health Commission, Neami National (Metropolitan Suicide Prevention Coordinators), Palmerston Association (South East Metro Community Alcohol and Drug Service), Cancer Council WA, WA Police Force and WA Health Alliance.

State and National Campaign Awareness Raising

Promoted the Alcohol. Think Again 'I need you to say no' and Glassbody "Immunity" campaigns and Alcohol and Drug Foundation's Staying Safe during COVID-19'.

'I need you to say no' advertisement placed in The Examiner delivered to approx. 100,000 homes .

Campaign promoted via Facebook, advertisements onto buses, Twitter, posters and email distribution lists.

Priority Area 2: Reducing Alcohol-Related Anti-Social Behaviour

2 meetings held to address 'hot spot' areas in the Cities of Armadale and Canning.

4 organisations engaged representing local government, health, policing and liquor licensing.

Hot spot areas identified and preliminary data gathered

Priority Area 3: Alcohol-related support services

Service Coordination and Referral Pathways Working Group established

(Lead agency: Cannington Armadale Family Support Network)

11 organisations engaged representing education, community services, local government, health, and Aboriginal services.

Project aims to increase the community's access to alcohol-related services.